MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

Industry Structure & Development

Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFC) have rapidly emerged as an important segment of the Indian financial system. With the increasing service sector activity in India, NBFC have been playing a critical role in providing credit. NBFC is a heterogeneous group of financial institutions, performing a wide range of activities like hire-purchase finance, vehicle financing, equipment lease finance, personal loans, working capital loans, consumer loans, housing loans, loans against shares and investments, etc. The role of NBFC as effective financial intermediaries has been well recognised as they have inherent ability to take quicker decisions, assume greater risks, and customize their services and changes more according to the needs of the clients.

The segment has witnessed considerable growth in the last few years and is now being recognised as complementary to the banking sector due to implementation of innovative marketing strategies, introduction of tailor-made products, customer-oriented services, attractive rates of return on deposits and simplified procedures, etc.

Opportunities, Threats, Risks and Concerns

In spite of the strong competition faced by the NBFCs, the inner strength of NBFCs viz local knowledge, credit appraisal skill, well trained collection machinery, close monitoring of borrowers, and personalized attention to each client are catering to the needs of small and medium enterprises in the rural and semi-urban areas. NBFCs are playing significant role in financing the road transport and infrastructure and have reached the grass root level through micro finance.

As an NBFC, your company is subjected to both external risk and internal risk. External risk due to interest rate fluctuation, slowdown in economic growth rate, political instability, market volatility, decline in foreign exchange reserves, etc. Internal risks associated with your company's business which includes deployment of funds in specific projects, diversifications into other business operations, retention of talented personnel, managing effective growth rate, volatility in interest rate, NPAs in portfolio, changes in compliance norms and regulations, contingent liabilities, and other legal proceedings. Your company recognizes the importance of risk management, and has invested in people, process and technologies to effectively mitigate the above risks.

Segment-Wise Performance - Finance & Investment

Your Company's operations continue to be mainly focused in the area of Financing & Investment.

Financial Performance

The performance of the Company is satisfactory and has continued to make profit during the year.

Internal Control System

The Company has a proper and adequate system of internal control in all spheres of its activities to ensure that all its assets are safeguarded and protected against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that the transactions are authorized, recorded and reported diligently. The Company ensures adherence to all internal control policies and procedures as well as compliance with all regulatory guidelines.

Human Resources

Your company is making continuous endeavour to improve the skill sets of each employee and evolving policies and process to attract and retain its substantial pool of managerial resources through friendly work environment that encourages initiatives by individuals and recognizes their performance. Employee relations continue to be cordial throughout the year.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of Visisth Chay Vyapar Limited

REPORT ON THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of "Visisth Chay Vyapar Limited" which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31 March 2014 and the statement of Profit and Loss and Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position and financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act") read with the General Circular 15/2013 dated 13 September 2013 of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs in respect of Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013. This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.
